ORAL JUDGEMENT

Heard learned counsel for the parties. Having gone through the contents of the reply filed to the Special Civil Application by the respondents before this Court, I am satisfied that the grievances made by the petitioners, no more survives.

The apprehension shown by the petitioners of adversely affecting of their promotional chances due to merger of the post of Demonstrator and came to be redesignated as Jr. technicians, is not well-founded. It is not in dispute that the petitioners have been given promotion from time to time and all of them came to be promoted as Assistant Engineer with effect from 1-1-1986. The learned counsel for the petitioners is unable to say how any of the promotional right or any other monetary benefits of the petitioners is being affected because of the merger of the post of Demonstrator and to be redesignated the same as Junior Technician.

In the result, this Special Civil Application fails and the same is dismissed. Rule discharged.
